

APS Foundation of America, Inc.

Post Office Box 801

La Crosse, Wisconsin 54602-0801

Office: 608-782-2626

Fax: 608-782-6569

APS FOUNDATION OF AMERICA, INC PRIVACY POLICY

GENERAL STANDARDS

The APS Foundation of America, Inc. undertakes to honor or exceed the legal requirements for medical and health information privacy in the United States. The APS Foundation of America, Inc. shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the United States of America and the exclusive jurisdiction of US Courts in the State of Wisconsin, County of La Crosse. These laws will apply in regards to any claim or matter arising in respect to this website.

WHAT WE DO WITH INFORMATION WE COLLECT

1. Information provided to the APS Foundation of America, Inc.

As a website user, you agree that any information you have entered may be stored in a database, such as personal ID information: your name, email address and participant name. User information is kept confidential. The APS Foundation of America, Inc. may share accumulated, anonymous statistical information regarding site usage and traffic patterns with our advertisers and sponsors. Information in these aggregated summary reports cannot be linked to you individually. Further, we use user data to compile statistics related to demographics and may disclose such reports to a third party on occasion. Your personal profile, however, will not be disclosed to any third party without your prior consent.

The APS Foundation of America, Inc. will periodically send promotional and educational emails to its users regarding fundraisers for the APS Foundation of America, Inc. The APS Foundation of America, Inc. may email its users periodically to inform them about the status of the website or of upcoming changes to the site, and for feedback on satisfaction questionnaires. Additionally, we inform users about changes to our privacy policy via email. Confidential, private or semi-private information included in the content of emails received from or sent to you will not be disclosed to anyone at any time unless required by law.

2. Accessing and Updating Personal Information

The APS Foundation of America, Inc. gives users the option of changing and modifying information originally. Users updated this information by contacting the APS Foundation of America, Inc. directly for help with such requests by completing a Comment Form.

3. Information gathered by the APS Foundation of America, Inc.

When you visit the site, the APS Foundation of America, Inc. may collect information on your actions. Information is collected from either the server log files, which tracks your IP address, or from cookies.

A. IP Address

An IP address is a number that is assigned by every ISP (Internet Service Provider) to computers. An IP address is used identify the location of a computer. IP addresses help diagnose problems with servers and aid in the administration of websites. The APS Foundation of America, Inc. sometimes uses IP addresses to communicate with or to restrict website use by those who do not comply with the Terms of Use.

www.apsfa.org
apsfa@apsfa.org

B. Cookies

The APS Foundation of America, Inc. enables "cookies" on your computer, a feature that you can configure on your internet browser. You can modify your browser preferences to change the cookies setting. Users can accept all cookies, reject all cookies, or request notification when a cookie is set. If you choose to reject all cookies you may not be able to use some the APS Foundation of America, Inc. features, or you may have to re-register each time you visit the forum.

Cookies are small packets of information that a website stores onto your computer. Our system accesses and reads cookies when users visit our website. For example, cookies save passwords so you don't have to re-enter a password each time you visit a website. Generally, cookies allow us to use the information we collect to customize your experience so that your visit to the APS Foundation of America, Inc. is as relevant and as valuable to you as possible.

PRIVACY IN A PUBLIC FORUM

Our forum requires registration for posting and replying to the forums. Please remember that any information disclosed on the forum becomes public information. Please exercise caution when deciding to disclose any personal information. All posts are subject to search engines with world-wide access to any reader. Do not post or offer your full name, email address, home address, telephone number, or any other contact information. Remind children to do the same. Email addresses can attract spammers that are difficult to control. Similarly, do not ask for contact information from others in the public forum. We also recommend that you do not register your real name, your unique email address, or the name of a website as a potential participant name; your participant name should be anonymous.

Posts that offer OR request information for any kind of off-board contact information, for any purpose, will be removed. Information including (but not limited to) email addresses, mailing addresses, telephone numbers, names, websites or links, etc. that are communicated via blogs, personal profile settings, signature, posts, surveys, polls, private messages, websites, and research studies will be removed.

SECURITY AND LIABILITY

This site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. This site maintains a dedicated server with restricted access only to authorized participant accounts. The webmaster, administrator and moderators cannot be held responsible if data integrity on the site becomes compromised.

UPDATING THIS POLICY

Our privacy policy may be revised periodically. The most recent changes to the policy will be noted in a different color within the policy. You can click on any of those areas to find information about the change and how it may affect you. Further, you may access all previous privacy policies through links at the top and the bottom of this page. When we make significant changes that affect our privacy policies and practices, we will post a notice on the APS Foundation of America, Inc. webpage for 30 days; users will be notified by email of material changes to the policy. We recommend that you read our privacy policy whenever you visit our site in case you missed our notice.

CONTACT US

If you have questions about the Terms of Use, Copyright Policy, Privacy Policy, and/or Advertising Policy or have any other questions or concerns about the site you can complete a Comment Form and we will respond to your comments with an individual and prompt reply.